RAILCORP SUBMITS ITS RESPONSE TO ICAC RECOMMENDATIONS

27 March, 2009

Transport Minister David Campbell said RailCorp was today submitting a formal response to the 40 recommendations made by the Independent Commission Against Corruption in its final report into bribery and fraud within the organisation.

“Stamping out corruption is a key priority for this Government and ICAC’s report gives RailCorp a strong platform to achieve this,” Mr Campbell said.

“Corrupt and unethical behaviour will simply not be tolerated.

“I note that RailCorp has committed to implementing all of the recommendations made by ICAC without delay.

“RailCorp’s response will be posted on the organisation’s website for the public to see.”
