

7.30 am – Special screening of Us Now . Registration desk also open.
9.00 am – Video by Matthew Hodgson and Welcome and introduction by Penny Sharpe MLC
9.20 am to 10.15 am – SESSION 1: WHAT IS GOV 2.0? WHAT IS ON THE HORIZON FOR GOV 2.0?
Senator Kate Lundy (by video) Senator for the ACT The Public Sphere concept and Pia Waugh ICT Policy Advisor Office of Senator Kate Lundy What is Gov 2.0?	Peter J Cooper Director, Cooper Sydney Gov2.0: What the Government should and should not do With so many different and conflicting opportunities and ideas, it is hard for Government to act strategically. A distilled view from one niche global consultancy with a substantial international track record in business technology, financial markets and startups.	James Dellow Headshift Us Now: NSW NSW is Australia's most populous state and there is no denying that we face a number of challenges in how we deliver public services across our community. Government 2.0 involves re-balancing our expectations of government and encouraging (and possibly educating) us to take more individual and collective responsibility for our society.
10.15am to 10.30 am – Special Guest Speaker (TBC)
10.30 am to 10.45 am - short break
10.45 am to 11.45 am – SESSION 2: WHAT IS HAPPENING IN NSW?
Paul McLeay MP Member for Heathcote Case study in web democracy	Mylee Joseph Consultant Public Library Services State Library of NSW Libraries and collaboration with Local Government The State Library of NSW has been working with public libraries using web 2.0 tools to both engage their communities and interact professionally online. Training in the use of web 2.0 tools was provided to over 1 000 NSW public library staff many of whom are now using web 2.0 tools in their daily work.	Stanley Yip Lead Educational Programmer, Learning Applications and Multimedia Centre for Learning Innovation, NSW Dept of Education & Training Education 2.0 A perspective from the NSW Department of Education's Centre for Learning Innovation. CLI produces high quality interactive learning resources and provides leadership in the use of technology in education and training.	Lynda Summers Chair, NSW Regional Communities Consultative Council & Executive Consultant, Regional Development Australia - Murray The Squawk	Tony Ritchie Manager, Corporate Communications NSW Police Policing and the Challenge of Communication How Police reach out to the NSW Community
11.45 am to 12.45 pm – PANEL: WHAT ARE THE RISKS IN A WEB 2.0 ENVIRONMENT?
Matthew Crozier Co-founder & Director Bang the Table Pty Ltd Risk Management and Why Government needs to engage online	Stilgherrian Internet, IT and Media Consultant Risk vs paranoia		Colin Griffith NSW Department of Commerce How do you drive innovation within government?
12.45 to 1.30pm – Lunch
1.30 pm to 2.30pm – SESSION 3: DATA
Pedro Harris Land and Property Management Authority Gov 2.0 and Spatial Collaboration	Rob Manson MOB Open data presentation A short presentation on the continuum of options possible and a look at some tangible uses this data has been put to, as well as the types of things it can enable in the near term future.	Cassie Findlay Senior Project Officer, Government Recordkeeping State Records NSW Preserving Digital Information The aims of more open, transparent and collaborative government all rely on the ongoing useability of digital government information. What are the strategies we can adopt to make sure the digital evidence of our lives is there for the future?	John Vandyke Project Manager, ITIS Procurement NSW Transport and Infrastructure Transport and Gov 2.0 We all know that public transport is a good thing. But how do you connect with the right services when you need them, wherever you might be? Whoever you are, wherever you are, passenger information is the answer.
2.30 pm to 2.50 pm – Afternoon Tea
2.50 pm to 4.00 pm – SESSION 4: OPEN GOVERNMENT / TOOLS FOR DEMOCRACY
Damien Donnelly Tweet MP Twitter for Politicians	Jeffery Candiloro Myrepresentatives.org Myrepresentatives.org	Dr Silvia Pfeiffer CEO Vquence Pty Limited Video for Politicians and Government Using case studies and her personal experience, Silvia will explain why it is important that politicians and government agencies use online video as a communication means with their constituents and the broader public.	Steven Noble Senior Analyst Forrester Research Increase eGovernment's Effectiveness By Engaging Young Adults Young adults are the most sophisticated internet users in Australia, but the least likely to use government websites and online services. Bridging this gap would increase the reach and effectiveness of eGovernment while helping young adults to engage with civil society.
4.00pm to 5.00 pm – Closing discussion

Thanks to our sponsors: