

Rainbow Labor NSW would like to celebrate Mardi Gras with you over two special events:

Thursday February 26 | Film Screening of 'The Times of Harvey Milk'

Come and see the oscar-winning documentary 'The Times of Harvey Milk', which examines the life of San Francisco's first elected gay councillor.

Michael Vaughan, Rainbow Labor co-convenor, will also give an update on Rainbow Labor's plans for ALP National Conference and the ongoing campaign for full relationship equality.

Beer, wine, champagne and snacks will be provided.

Venue: Tom Mann Theatre, 136 Chalmers Street

Time: Drinks from 7, film screening at 7.30pm

Cost: $15 | $10 concession, with all funds raised going toward building our float

RSVP: By Monday February 23 to rainbow.labor@gmail.com or Michael on 0413 473 773

Saturday March 7 | March in the Rainbow Labor Mardi Gras Float!

Mardi Gras is a night to dress up, let loose and be part of the perfect blend of celebration and protest. This year, Rainbow Labor's float is themed 'The Very Uncivil Union of Mal and Kev, and Juls and Julia'.

You are cordially invited to be a wedding guest at this irreverent union of our political leaders (and deputies), so dress up as a bride, groom, guest or present and come along at 4pm to the Sydney Town Hall steps, where we will go as a group to the parade marshalling area.

All are welcome, so if you are thinking of marching in the parade, please email Michael at rainbow.labor@gmail.com ASAP.

Building a fabulous float is expensive work, and we can't do it without the help of branch members and supporters. Please consider making a small donation to Rainbow Labor to help cover the costs of Mardi Gras 2009.

Cheques are payable to Rainbow Labor NSW, c/o 422 Crown St, Surry Hills 2010. Alternatively, you can donate by Electronic Funds Transfer to "Rainbow Labor (NSW)", BSB: 112 879 | Account Number: 152 961 134.
